About Jen:

Jennifer Hall has been an educator for 15 years and currently serves as one of Atlanta's Educational Technology Specialists. As a member of the Atlanta Educational Technology Department, Jen collaborates with other educators to integrate technology in engaging ways that help students to foster college and career readiness, as well as relevant skills for the 21st-century workforce. Jen's passion is instructional design and student engagement. Jen is a speaker, trainer, National Board Certified Educator, Google Certified Educator, and as well as a Microsoft Innovative Educator. She created her Tech Tips 411 website, which provides ideas, and more for teachers. She also has a YouTube channel with quick tips, how-tos, and student projects, and live-streamed professional development sessions. Jen is passionate about all things #edtech and loves to enhance instruction and engage students.
