Movies are back! At least, partially. Kind of. two years ago, the idea that blockbusters like In the Heights and Black Widow would hit streaming services and theaters at the same time would be unthinkable. But while 2021's box office will likely be far lower than pre-COVID-19 numbers, the upcoming lineup looks like bounty to last summer. Most of these films were shot pre- and have sitting in can for months; some will be available to watch from your . ers will necessitate that many venture into theaters than a year. From a new Fast and origin for Cruella to a documentary from the most anticipated films through end
