

I can't believe it's the final week of school and the last issue of my TT411 newsletter for the 2020-2021 school year. I hope you have found the edtech tips, apps, tools, resources, ideas, and tutorials I have shared beneficial. New issues of TT411 will hit your inbox in August 2021. If you are interested, I will be livestreaming PD on my YouTube channel in June. See below for the link to subscribe.
