

I hope you are finding the new format of my Tech Tips 411. email. beneficial. For eight years, I sent a weekly email I created for my teachers and I was planning to scale back now that I have begun a new role.. However, I must admit, I have been missing sharing tools and resources each week. So I will be popping into your inbox more frequently. If you have any suggestions for #edtech tools you would like me to include, please let me know. Jen
